Data relating to Information gathered from the 'Feuchtwanger Document'

Around mid-1992, I received from Ruth Goldberg photocopies of a few extracted pages from the attached Feuchtwanger Document. Pages 84 and 91 thereof refer to certain persons with our family name Oettinger.

I am preserving the information, even though I have found no direct connection to our family, although I suppose that they too descend from the persons (described elsewhere), who lived in Oettingen, emigrated from there under pressure to 'the East' and adopted the Oettinger name in commemoration of their origins.

Meanwhile, I have found that my original idea of identifying all existing (or previously existing) Oettingers is a virtually impossible task; and I have abandoned any further search for further relatives. However, the data contained in the attached material may be of some use.

Some of the people mentioned in the Feuchtwanger document emigrated to the U.S. and there made their home at Groton, MA. I wrote there and received very courteous collaboration from Mr. Brown, who is currently Archivist and Department Head at the Groton School; and personally knew some (and continues to know some others) of these Oettingers.

I eventually notified Mr. Brown that I was abandoning my efforts to find more relatives; however, I do not wish to destroy the material which I had obtained previously.

The immediately-following sheet shows Joseph and Recha Oettinger, from whom descended some persons who lived, or are still living, in the U.S.

Further attached is some correspondence relating to these people, which will be readily understood by anyone looking through it.

All pertinent material attached to this covering note is hereby preserved for whatever future value it may have.

Dear Mr. Brown,

Thank you very much for the detailed explanations (relative to the data I had found in the 'Feuchtwanger Genealogy'), contained in your letter of October 10th.

I made a chart giving what I hope is now an accurate and complete overview of the situation. So far, I have not been able to establish a connection between Joseph Oettinger and his wife (nee Rau), and the various other Oettingers of whom I know.

However, I have recently had the opportunity to visit the Leo Baeck Institute in New York City, which specializes in the preservation of data (and miscellaneous information) on ex-German Jews; and, I have, on that occasion found a two-volume publication ["Gedenkbuch - Opfer der Verfolgung der Juden unter der nationalsozialistischen Gewaltherrschaft in Deutschland 1933-1945"] which lists no fewer than 61 persons named 'Oettinger' who lost their lives by the hand of the Nazis. Only two of these 61 are known to me, namely my parents, who were deported from Nuernberg (where my father had been a medical doctor) to Theresienstadt. May father died there of heart problems of long standing, for which, evidently, no medication was available, while my mother found her end, somewhat later, in the gas chambers at Auschwitz (Oettinger, Martin, Nuernberg; and Oettinger Lilli, geb. Lehmann, also Nuernberg, in the enclosed sheet).

While I had known that there existed many Oettingers in Germany (and presumably also elsewhere), I was astounded to see this long list. Presumably all these Oettingers are interrelated through a man Mordechai Model, who lived in Oettingen and had six children, born between 1637 and 1667. [I wrote in late 1990 a paper ("Where does our Family Name OETTINGER come from?"), after I had visited the town of Oettingen in summer 1990; I was there a second time in October 1991.]

Now, being aware of the massive number of people with our family name, I have decided to abandon my original idea of trying to find ALL Oettingers and establish 'how they fit together'; it would obviously be a gigantic undertaking, which I am not prepared to even begin.

This will also, indirectly, answer your question as to whether or not I would want to obtain more information on the three sons of Ernst Ludwin Loewenberg and his wife Margarete (nee Oettinger). After all, since Mordechai Model's birth (~ 1600) almost 4 centuries have passed; and if one figures 3 generations per century and an average of 4 offspring per family one would come up with 4^12 direct descendants, equal to almost 17 million! (And this doesn't even consider the spouses!).

So, I am at this point just consolidating the various data which - as the genealogist (nolens volens) of my family - have accumulated over the years and trust that this effort will suffice to eventually grant me a reasonably good accommodation in the beyond. If not, so be it!

In any case, I have very much appreciated your efforts in my behalf over the recent weeks; and want to thank you once more for them.

As already said, if you ever get into our neighborhood, you will be very welcome to visit!

Sincerely yours,

The father of Ernst Ludwin Loewenberg was Jacob Loewenberg.

The above data were supplied by Mr. Douglas V.D. Brown, Box 991, Groton School, Groton, MA 01450. He responded to an earlier inquiry of mine based on the 'Feuchtwanger Stammbaum', which indicated that Ernst Ludwin Loewenberg had been a teacher at the Groton School; and several members of his family lived at Groton also.

The President,

Dear Sir/Madam,

As the genealogist of the OETTINGER family, generally of south-German origin, I was recently given data on the following persons who - at least in the 1950's - lived in Groton and were connected with your school.

I would be very interested in finding contact with the persons (or their descendants) in connection with my research into the background of my family; and with any offspring who can still be found.

The information I have relates to the following persons:

Mr. JACOB LOEWENBERG [or LOWENBERG (in German with two dots on the letter 'o')], Ph. D.; had been 'Studienrat' in Hamburg (Germany), and apparently became a teacher at your school in 1940. (He was born at Hamburg on December 16th, 1900. He would by now be about ninety years old, and may no longer be living.

Also his mother, Mrs. RECHA OETTINGER (nee Rau) [widow of JOSEPH OETTINGER] apparently lived at Groton, after immigration to the United States in 1945. She was born at Fuerth (Bavaria) in 1875; and doubtlessly is no longer living.

The daughter of the above-mentioned Jacob Loewenberg (MARGARETE LOEWENBERG) had the maiden name OETTINGER; she eventually married ERNST LUDWIN.

In the sources available to me I found the information that the mentioned Recha Oettinger had THREE CHILDREN (originally, of course, with the family name Oettinger; but any female children may now bear the name of their respective husbands. However, it is most likely that these children are still living somewhere in the U.S.A., quite possibly in Massachusetts.

Any information you might have which would help me to locate any of the above relatives of mine, would be of great interest to me.

Thanking you in anticipation, I am,

respectfully yours,

Mr. Douglas Brown of the

Sept. 24, 1992

Dear Mr. Oettinger:

When I was a student here from 1953-1957 I was taught German + French by Ernst Loewenberg, husband of Margarete Loewenberg. Mrs. Loewenberg's mother, Mrs. Oettinger, lived with them at Groton School. She (Mrs. O.) was a very old lady at that time who had been in a concentration camp during the war.

Ernst died a handful of years ago, but his widow, who is now 90, lives in Brookline at 35 Vernon St. apartment #405, ZIP 02146. (Phone 617-277-6311)

The Loewenbergs had two sons that I know of, Jacob and Joseph. I believe they spell their names Lowenberg.

I recall that Ernst Loewenberg, my old friend and teacher, had been head of a school in Hamburg until the late 1930's when he was able to come to America before the Nazis got him. He began teaching here in 1940 and retired in 1962 when he was 65 years old, I thought. (though you say he was born in 1900)

It seems to me that you may have gotten various people mixed up in your letter! I will send your letter to Margarete Loewenberg and I will go to visit her soon and try to obtain the genealogical information you request. It will be my great pleasure to do this for you and for your family, as the Loewenbergs were very dear friends.

It was my understanding that many of Mrs. Oettinger's and Mrs. Loewenberg's relatives ~~were~~ perished under the Nazi regime, and whether Grete Loewenberg will want to tell me about these people I cannot say.

The Loewenbergs were very highly esteemed when they were here for their character, scholarship and especially their directness which sometimes could be misunderstood. Mr. Loewenberg, particularly, was often consulted unofficially by the headmaster when a difficult decision had to be made. Ernst had the ability to consider problems in a far wider context than just the little world of Groton School.

It was a pleasure to talk with you this evening. I will visit Grete and then report back.

With very kindest regards,

Sincerely, Douglas Brown '57

Dear Mr. Brown,

Your telephone call, and your subsequent letter, relative to my genealogy work were very much appreciated indeed.

I have meanwhile had a telephone conversation with Mrs. Margarete Loewenberg; she was rather brief and did not seem too terribly interested in my project. But, of course, she really knows little (or, indeeed, nothing) about me; if you are able to obtain additional information from here, I shall be highly pleased; but, if not, so be it.

It is not impossible that I "got various people mixed up in my letter", akthough I tried to be careful in evaluating the rather fragmentary data I had received.

My source in this instance were pages 84, 85, and 91 of a document which reportedly was printed in 1954 on the "FEUCHTWANGER FAMILY, The Descendants of Seligmann Feuchtwanger", of which I am enclosing photocopies, together with a copy of the title sheet. This material may be of general interest to you; no need to return it.

If you ever come to our neck of the woods, we hope to meet you in the flesh. Please note that from about mid-November to around end-April, we are usually at our secondary home about 1-1/2 driving hours north of here at:

Thanks again for your kind assistance,

sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Oettinger,

The information in the Feuchtwanger Family document is correct, but perhaps confusing to you. Let me state who was who:

Recha Oettinger, née Rau (page 91) was Margarete Oettinger's mother. Margarete married Ernst Ludwig Loewenberg.

Their children are Frank Meyer Loewenberg, born 1925
Jacob Rainer Loewenberg, born 1929
Jörn Joseph Loewenberg, born 1933

These men are all alive, but do not live near here.

In 1954 when the Feuchtwanger document was compiled ~~the~~ Mrs. Oettinger, Mr. + Mrs. Loewenberg and the two sons Jacob and Joseph resided at Groton School. (Frank was married)

I have been today to Sharon Memorial Park in Sharon, Massachusetts and noted the following data on the grave markers:

Recha Oettinger
Born 10 April 1872, Fürth
Died 5 Dec. 1957, Groton

Ruth Oettinger
Born 11 March 1911 Hamburg
Died 15 May 1985 New York City

Ernst L. Loewenberg
1896 – 1987 (died in Brookline, Mass.)

The Jacob Loewenberg you mentioned in your letter of 19 Sept. 1992 is the father of Ernst Lutwin Loewenberg, our teacher. The reference on page 84 of Feuchtwanger is confusing, to say the least!

Recha Oettinger was the mother of Ernst Lutwin Loewenberg's wife, Margarete Oettinger.

No wonder Grete Loewenberg "doesn't seem terribly interested" in your work! No doubt she doesn't want to be reminded of the pain of losing her brother Herbert, his wife and children to the Nazis, or of her mother's imprisonment.

Grete's sister Ruth, who died in New York in 1985, evidently did not marry. I don't know how she escaped from Hamburg or Amsterdam — perhaps she came with Margarete and Ernst and their 3 boys.

I have a good friend who taught German here for many years (he is now 85) + who was a very close personal friend of the Loewenbergs. He is familiar with their family history and I'll bet he can give some details Mrs. Loewenberg is unwilling to speak about. I will ask him, and report back to you.

What you have sent me is most interesting to me. How far does your interest extend? Do you want to know about the 3 Loewenberg boys + their children — or is that too remote for you?

You did not give me your winter address. You are the only person I know who would go north of your area for the winter! Why not Florida?

With kind regards.

Douglas

P.S. I return a letter you may have sent me by mistake.

Persons with the Name Oettinger, in the Feuchtwanger Family

Ruth Goldberg (Hamilton, Ontario Canada) recently sent me photocopies of pages 84, 85 and 91; and the cover sheet of a document

THE FEUCHTWANGER FAMILY

What I received shows no date of publication; but Ruth told me over the 'phone that it was printed in 1954. No later issue apparently exists.

Listed are (among many others of various names):

Oettinger, Herbert; 1896 Hamburg - 1944 Auschwitz (2 children)

Oettinger, Ralph Joseph; 1933 Amsterdam - 1944 Auschwitz

Oettinger, Recha nee Rau, 1872 Fuerth; Bergen-Belsen and Theresienstadt; 1945 to U.S.A. (Address Groton School, Groton, Mass. U.S.A.); had been married to Joseph Oettinger (1863 Hamburg - 1929 Hamburg), who was "wholesale dealer in cigars; died of stomach cancer"). 3 children.

Oettinger, Ruth; 1911 Hamburg; secretary. Address 61 Langford Court, Abbey Road, London N.W. 8

Herbert Oettinger seems to have been the son of Joseph and Recha, as BOTH are listes as "wholesale dealers in Cigars" and also both from Hamburg. [Agewise - Herbert born 1896, Joseph 1863 - this would seem ok].

None of these Oettingers appear in any of my genealogy records. Presumably they are, however, also descendants of Mordechai Model of Oettingen, who emigrated from Oettingen, went "to the East" and is buried in Vienna. [See my brochure on "WHERE DOES OUR FAMILY NAME 'OETTINGER' COME FROM?"].
